

Waníyetu Waná Ú

There's a chill in the air. – Tǎŋkál osní áye.

There's a nip in the breeze. – Tǎté kiŋ sniyáŋ uyé.

Winter is coming. – Waníyetu waná ú weló/kštó.

The trees are changing colors. – Čhaŋwápe kiŋ zizí na šašá áye.

The leaves are falling to the ground. – Na enáŋna kǎŋhán ǎpáye.

Winter is coming. – Waníyetu waná ú weló/kštó.

The land is covered in morning frost. – Hínhaŋni čhaŋ makǎóče kiŋ aǎéyŋke.

The lakes begin to freeze. – Blé kiŋ tasáksak áye.

Winter is coming. – Waníyetu waná ú weló/kštó.

The bears have full bellies. – Matǎó kiŋ tanyáŋ wíhipi.

They gather in dens to sleep. – Na wašúŋ ečhékče oištŋmapi.

Winter is coming. – Waníyetu waná ú weló/kštó.

Time to stoke the fire. – Waná čhethípi iyéhaŋtu.

Time for buffalo stew and chili. – Waná tǎthǎŋka waháŋpi kǎlyá káŋapi iyéhaŋtu.

Winter is coming. – Waníyetu waná ú weló/kštó.

Time for coats and boots. – Waná ógle šóka na akáŋhaŋpa kič'úŋpi iyéhaŋtu.

Time for hats and gloves. – Waná waǎóštaŋ na napíŋkpa iyékiyapi iyéhaŋtu.

Winter is coming. – Waníyetu waná ú weló/kštó.

Be ready for when the first snow falls. – Ečháni tǎoká wá hiŋhín kta čha iglúwiŋyeya po/pe.

Winter is coming. – Waníyetu waná ú weló/kštó.